The meeting was called to order by Fred Raiford to discuss the issuing of Best Stop No. 6's beer and alcohol license as they have just changed ownership and to discuss Carter's Supermarket's beer license application as taking over the existing LeBlanc's Supermarket.

Mr. Basil Hamideh appeared on behalf of Best Stop No. 6 as owner. City Attorney Irys Allgood questioned the ability of him being able to order and purchase alcohol since he is only 19 years old. He was instructed to have his father, an employee in the store, do the ordering and purchasing of alcohol as a precaution.
